

Woodbine Grain Elevator

Hwy 30 & Lincolnway 2012

The 1940s milk carton shaped wooden elevator was saved from demolition, restored, and used as the backdrop for the sculpture representing Woodbine's heritage and the rolling farm fields of the area.

Little Sister of Liberty

5th & Lincolnway - 1950

Troops across the nation dedicated over 200 sculptures in 39 states celebrating Scouting's 40th anniversary, "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty." Local fundraising of $350 placed the stamped replicas created from 40 sheets of copper (thickness of a nickel) over wooden frames.
